Dear Sirs:

We appreciate you selecting Pensacola Beach to film your reality TV show, however it is our understanding your show conflicts with our mission statement which is: "To promote tourism, manage growth and provide entertainment in a safe, clean, eco-friendly environment."

Please be advised that we will work with local law enforcement to insure that all laws, rules and regulations are strictly enforced as there will be zero tolerance for any of the violations listed below. A few examples are as follows:

- No Public Intoxication
- No Drinking and Driving
- No Noise Ordinance Violations
- No Littering
- No Profanity
- No Operation of Motorized Vehicles On Beach Except Law Enforcement
- No Lewd and Lascivious Behavior
- No Illegal Substances
- No Parking Violations
- No Vandalism
- No Campfires or Bonfires On The Beach
- No Beachfront Lighting Per Our Turtle Lighting Ordinance

In closing, we want to reiterate that in the event you're able to secure housing on Pensacola Beach for your production we will be closely watching and will ensure all laws will be enforced and violators will be arrested and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

You may be best served by finding another beach location that would welcome your endeavor.

Respectfully,

Tammy Bohannon
SRIA Chairwoman
